To-morrow, H.M.S. Barfleur sails for Nagasaki and Weihaiwei. Rear-Admiral Fitzgerald goes North; we believe, to as-

Vice-Admiral Sir E. Seymour coming south for a spell.

Guests who are invited to the Powerful's entertainment on Tuesday, are informed that boats will leave Murray Pier, and the Dockyard at 8 p.m. sharp, as it is desirable all guests should be seated before 8.30, when the curtain rises.

The Rangoon Gazette of the 7th inst. says:

Mr. J. W. Jamieson, Consul at Szamoa, has arrived in Bhamo after a rapid march from his headquarters, which he left towards the end of September. Mr Jamieson will join the southern party of the Burmo-Chinese Boundary Commission.

It is notified in the Gazette that H.E. the Officer Administering the Government has been pleased to appoint Commander W. O.

(in addition to his other duties) with effect from 12th November, and during the temporary absence on account of sickness of Commander R. M. Runniger.

The arrival of H.M.S. Eclipse (the flagship of the East Indies Station) shortly after the arrival of the French cruiser Breiz (home-bound) at Colombo gave rise to the rumour that Rear-Admiral Douglas was 'shadowing' the Breiz. The Times of Ceylon states, however, that the arrival of the British cruiser almost simultaneously with the Breiz was a mere accident.

'STANDING room only' was the notice put up at the door of the Theatre Royal on Saturday night, when the triple bill of the A. D. C. was repeated. H. E. the Acting Governor and Sir John Carrington and party were among those present. The act-was exceedingly good, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience. In the comedietta, "Sugar and Cream," some of the neatest and most excellent bits of acting one could wish were shown; and thoroughly appreciated; Mrs. Bagnall Wild was honoured with a special call before the curtain. The rollicking farce was, if possible, more rollicking than ever, Messrs. Loxton and Skrimshere being in very good form.

over a thousand bluejackets and marines took part in Saturday's surprise march-out. Although it is not known generally, we believe it is a fact that Admirals Seymour and Fitzgerald have introduced many new features into the routine of the China Squadron. These changes are consequent upon the substantial increase in the number of large cruisers in the East, and the work done conforms, to a great extent, with the class of work done by the Mediterranean Squadron. Under the whole last week, the ships in harbour were kept busy at evolutions, and the Colony need not be surprised if the men are frequently ashore in a body as they were on Saturday last.
